

JUAN DEL VALLE

Flamenco Dancer

In March of 2004, Juan was selected to dance in the Premier Performance of Israel Galvan's Torero al Lucinogen at the Teatro Central in Sevilla, Spain. Concurrently, he performed a five-month run as a soloist at La Carboneria in Sevilla with shows televised in New York and Europe.

In the summer of 2005, Juan joined the company of Maria Benitez, Teatro Flamenco, and worked with leading flamenco artists including Antonio Granjero and famed gipsy guitarist Chuscales. He was then invited by Ms. Benitez to join the faculty of the Institute for Spanish Arts in Santa Fe, New Mexico where he taught for five months. He participated in the International Dance Congress, Cuerpo Creativo in Venezuela by exclusive invitation of the University of Zulia and the National Ministry of Culture. This included a nationally televised performance and a week of master classes. Juan also traveled as a guest of the Chinese Government to perform in the internationally televised Culture Festival of Beijing.

He has performed throughout the United States with companies including Romeria Flamenca of New York, Jose Porcel Company from Madrid, Spain, Caminos Flamencos of San Francisco and as a featured artist at the Fountain Theater in Hollywood. Juan is also classically trained having earned a Deuxieme Medaille in juried exams at the Paris Conservatory. He has performed works including Carmen, Bolero, La Vida Breve and Triana, and with symphony orchestras such as the San Francisco Pops Orchestra.
